

Kosov a all falsification, all moralism,

"Newsmakers" and "Pundits"

drone endlessly on, pro and con, transfixed by the persistent illusions of race, ethnicity, religion, nation-states, the "global economy", and the "marketplace of ideas". They frame all conflict as a contest between stability and chaos, or "Good" leaders and "Evil" leaders.

"In short, subversion is the basic expression of creativity."
...Vaneigem

Even in a world where all information is suspect and no source reliable, we can,

The corporate media carefully studies "both sides" of all complex polyhedrons at careful distance through a stupefying haze of filtered "objectivity".

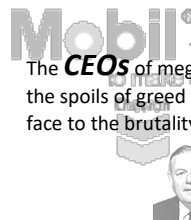

They search for "truth" as if it were hidden like "Waldo" among the sterilized scenes of death and desperation.

and we must stand publicly firm in defense of the imagination wherever didn't just happen, all economic imbalance,

Politics serves POWER.

all oppression

The CEOs of mega-multi-national corporations gather the spoils of greed while trying to place a more benign face to the brutality of exploitation and murder for profit.

worldwide,

In the Cult of Celebrity, mesmerized by the seductions of POWER, and convinced of their helpless ignorance, "good citizens"

Leaders of Industry

and the

in all its forms, rests on

"Poetry must be made by all."
...Ducasse

Activists,

and the practitioners of sanctioned dissent pace carefully with their inoffensive placards within the official limits of protest. They prove the tolerance of rulers while reproducing shadow bureaucracies in their

"When it comes to revolt, none of us must have any need of ancestors."
...Breton

the same

we must reclaim

The spectacle of such

betrayal

betrayal,

Terrorists, gangsters and drug entrepreneurs reinforce the great myths of the existing

our lives

of the imagination.

must always be held in the most extreme and public while simultaneously providing the focus of fear and the justification for ever tightening social control over individual behavior.

from the forces of lethal banality.

contempt.

was made.

"...consciously or not, the decision to employ a particular piece of apparatus and to use it in a particular way carries an assumption that only certain sorts of circumstances will arise."
...Kuhn